

Invitation to Members Night

PRCA Malaysia is holding a member's night as part of its continuous efforts to nurture and galvanise the public relations industry in Malaysia. The event will take place on 5th September, 7pm at the Red Beanbag (Lot A4-1-08), Solaris Dutamas. The members night is an opportunity for public relations practitioners to exchange industry related views and insights. It is also an avenue where members can provide constructive feedback in moving the industry forward.

"PRCA Malaysia member's night is just one of our many initiatives to bring together the industry's professionals and have an informal forum where we discuss how we can further improve ourselves. We believe it is an ideal platform that can birth positive ideas to move the industry forward" said Joycelyn Lee, Vice President of PRCA Malaysia.

PRCA Malaysia has also extended the invitation to industry partners and potential members to attend, as part of its initiative to foster a dynamic public relations community. As an incentive, new members who signs up on the night will be entitled to a 3-month free membership. Individual members will also be able to collect their membership certificates on the night.

Members are required to submit their RSVP to secretariat@prcamalaysia.org by 30 Aug to facilitate catering and printing of certificates. Corporate members will be presented with certificates at the gathering. All members are encouraged to submit their feedback on how the association should move forward to the same email address.
